proper in this Court because plaintiff is a resident of King County and because the acts giving rise to this action occurred in King County.

II. CLAIMS AND DEFENSES

A. PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS.

Defendants are each responsible for, negligence and breach of fiduciary duty and arising from their failure to prevent Jack Loholt aka Jack Onofrey's abuse of children, plaintiff R.K. Defendants are additionally liable for negligence stemming from their supervision and retention of Jack Loholt as Assistant Scout Master and Melchisedek Priest, negligence based on their failure to report Loholt's sexual abuse of children pursuant to RCW 26.44 and based on its continuing retention of Loholt as Assistant Scout Master and Melchisedek Priest knowing he had abused children and was likely continuing to abuse others.²

B. DEFENDANTS' AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES.

1. Defendants deny plaintiff's allegations.
2. COP's first notice of Loholt's abuse of any child followed all acts of abuse of plaintiff.
3. COP's notice came in the form of a privileged conversation between a Church member, Richard Pettit, and the Bishop of the Kent Second Ward, Bishop Randall Borland. This communication should be excluded from evidence.

² COP objects to Plaintiff's characterization of claims and facts at issue. For example, Plaintiff does not seek recovery for COP's negligent supervision of Loholt as Assistant Scout Master given that Loholt's abuse of Plaintiff did not occur in connection with any Scouting activity.

4. If either defendant was negligent, there are other at-fault persons to whom the jury must apportion fault: plaintiff's parents (Jerry Kelly and Dorothy Kelly) and Dr. Herman Allenbach.

5. The jury must segregate damages resulting from Loholt's intentional conduct.

III. ADMITTED FACTS

A. ADMITTED FACTS.

1. The plaintiff, R.K., was a minor under the age of eighteen years at the time of the sexual abuse that is the focus of this suit. His date of birth is June 26, 1962.

2. Jack Loholt was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, ("the Church"), and a member of Kent Second Ward during the relevant period of time.

3. Loholt intentionally abused plaintiff R.K over a period of several months. At the time he sexually abused plaintiff, Loholt resided in Kent, WA, in a downstairs apartment in the home of Dr. Herman Allenbach. Plaintiff's family lived next door to the Allenbach family.

4. Loholt moved out of the Allenbach residence in January 1973, when he purchased a home.

5. One incident of abuse occurred in a field near plaintiff's home, the others occurred in Loholt's apartment in the Allenbach home.

6. One act of abuse occurred when Loholt masturbated in the presence of plaintiff, his brother and Dr. Allenbach's son in a field near their homes. That day, plaintiff told his parents what Loholt had done. That evening, plaintiff's parents, Dorothy Kelly and Jerry Kelly, went next-door and told Dr. Allenbach what Loholt had done in the presence of their sons.

1 7. Neither plaintiff's parents nor Dr. Allenbach reported Loholt's abuse of
2 plaintiff to law enforcement authorities or to the state Department of Social and Health
3 Services.

4 8. According to the doctrine and organization of the Church, virtually every male 5 member age 12 and older who claims to be observant belongs to the "priesthood" and 6 holds some title therein, such as deacon, priest, elder, or high priest. Prior to obtaining a 7 "priesthood" title, the priesthood is conferred upon the individual and he is ordained to a title
8 by the laying on of hands. Young men from ages twelve to eighteen are members of the 9 "Aaronic priesthood". Virtually all regularly attending twelve to fourteen year old boys hold 10 the title of "deacon"; fourteen to sixteen year old boys hold the title of "teacher"; sixteen to 11 eighteen year old boys hold the title of "priest". Once men reach the age of eighteen, they 12 become members of the "Melchizedek priesthood" if they claim to be observant in their 13 religious practices. At approximately age eighteen, observant males become "elders," and, at 14 approximately age 45, they become "high priests." A person can be an elder or high priest
15 while having no official duties or responsibilities on behalf of the Church.

16 9. Local congregations of the Church are called "wards" or "branches", 17 depending upon their size. Wards consist of from 300 to 700 members; branches are 18 considerably smaller. Several wards and branches in a particular geographical area constitute 19 a "stake." The clergy member who leads a ward is called a bishop. Most elders and high 20 priests never become a bishop.

21 10. Dr. Allenbach was an oral surgeon and member of the Church. He was a high
22 priest. He never was a bishop.

23 11. As an adult member of the Church, Loholt was an elder. He was never a 24 bishop.

1 12. Plaintiff was not a member of the Church; he was raised in a Catholic family.
2 Plaintiff also was not a member of Boy Scout troop that boys in the Kent 2nd Ward 3 participated in.

4 13. The Church encourages participation in Boy Scouts. Many wards have scout
5 troops, with the Scout Master being a member of the Church.

6 14. In February 1971 Loholt became an Assistant Scout Master. Ken Keller was 7 the ward Scout Master.

8 15. Jack Loholt inappropriately touched a scout, Scott Pettit, who told his father
9 about it. Scott Pettit's father, Richard Pettit, informed Kent 2nd Ward Bishop Randall
10 Borland in approximately February 1972. On February 6, 1972, Bishop Borland released 11 Loholt from his position as Assistant Scout Master. (COP recognizes this Court has denied its 12 motion in limine to exclude this communication, but COP continues to object to the 13 admissibility of this evidence).

14 16. Bishop Borland did not report Mr. Pettit's disclosure to law enforcement
15 authorities or the state Department of Social and Health Services, or to anyone else.

16 17. Plaintiff has college and advanced degrees. He graduated from Seattle
17 University (B.A. Social Studies, minor in Chemistry), and then obtained a Masters in Public
18 Administration from Seattle University (G.P.A. 3.5). He also attended Harvard University
19 Graduate School of Education (G.P.A. 4.0), and received a Fulbright Fellowship to go to 20 Japan to study the Japanese educational system. Most recently, plaintiff attended the 21 Principal Certification Program at Seattle Pacific University, Graduate School of Education.

22 B. PLAINTIFF'S CONTENTIONS.

23 1. Defendants COP and LDSSS were negligent because they had a duty to 24 prevent Loholt's abuse of children and failed to do so.
26

2. Defendants COP and LDSSS were negligent because they had a duty to protect foreseeable victims of Loholt from harm.

3. Plaintiff was subjected to multiple acts of childhood sexual abuse as defined by RCW 4.16.340(5) by Jack Loholt.

4. Loholt was an agent of the Mormon Church and was subject to their supervision and control.

5. Loholt resided in an apartment at the Allenbach compounded.

6. At all relevant times, Dr. Herman Allenbach was a leader in the defendant's Scouting program, a High Priest and member of the High Priest's Quorum and a former member of the Kent 2d ward's bishopric and priest's quorum adviser and was otherwise the defendant COP's agent. Dr. Allenbach's son, J.A., disclosed Loholt's abuse of him to his father in approximately 1971.

7. The Kent 2d Ward regularly conducted religious and social activities at the Allenbach compound at which R.K. was present. R.K. was not a member of the Mormon Church. However, R.K. was proselytized by Mormon missionaries and Mormon Elders including Loholt at the Allenbach Compound.

8. Loholt served as a member of an Elders' Quorum within the Church and worked as an adult volunteer in the scouting program of the ward and the ward's Young Men's Mutual Association.

9. Bishop Randall Borland was at relevant times the ward bishop and was the defendant COP's agent.

10. Loholt held ward boy scout troop meetings at the Allenbach compound which Robert Kelly attended.

1 11. Before and during Loholt's abuse of Plaintiff, church leaders including
2 Bishops Borland and scout leader and High Priest Herman Allenbach, and Richard Pettit
3 received complaints from victims that Loholt was sexually abusing children.

4 12. Defendant LDS Social Services was aware of Loholt's sexual abuse of children
5 and counseled him around his pedophilia during the same time period that Loholt was 6 continuing to sexually abuse plaintiff.

7 13. Defendants failed to warn or protect plaintiff of the danger it knew Loholt
8 plaintiff presented to him.

9 14. Defendants had a special relationship with Loholt because as Assistant
10 Scoutmaster, youth minister and Mormon Priest and Elder he was their agent.

11 15. Defendants had a special relationship with Plaintiff because he was a child that 12 it attempted to recruit into its membership and because he was within a protected class
13 recognized by the state as needing special protection. COP also had a special relationship
14 with Plaintiff because he was within a foreseeable zone of harm by Loholt who was its agent.

15 16. Defendants had a special relationship with Plaintiff by virtue of the fact that 16 they were mandatory child abuse reporters.

17 17. As a matter of public policy, Defendants had a duty of reasonable care to 18 protect plaintiff under the circumstances of this case because the defendants' knowledge of 19 the potential harm was certain, the character of the harm was extremely grave, the importance
20 of the social interest needing protection was paramount and the burden of compliance upon 21 defendants was insignificant.

22 18. As the result of defendants' failure to protect plaintiff from a known defendant
23 caused plaintiff to sustain severe and life-long psychological and emotional damages.

24 19. COP failed to train and supervise its hierarchal clergy in the proper 25 implementation of its guidelines, policies and procedures regarding the identification and 26

1 removal of child molesters from its ranks and the treatment of victims of child sexual abuse,
2 to monitor and insure compliance with their guidelines, policies and procedures, treatment of 3 child sexual abusers and reporting of child sexual abuse.

5 C. DEFENDANTS' CONTENTIONS.

6 Defendants COP and LDSSS contend as follows:

- 7 1. Defendant LDSSS should be dismissed. LDSSS had no involvement with Jack Loholt
8 until long after Loholt had abused plaintiff.
- 9 2. Loholt was not acting as an agent of the Church at any time when he abused Plaintiff.
- 10 3. Dr. Herman Allenbach was not an agent of the Church at the time plaintiff's parents
11 told Dr. Allenbach that Loholt had abused their sons, or at the time his son told Dr.
12 Allenbach of such abuse.
- 13 4. All acts of Loholt's abuse of plaintiff were committed prior to COP having notice that 14 Loholt had abused any child. If the February 1972 conversation between Richard
15 Pettit and Bishop Borland is admissible, which COP denies, such conversation
16 followed Loholt's abuse of plaintiff.
- 17 5. The February 1972 conversation between Richard Pettit and Bishop Borland
18 constitutes COP's only notice prior to January 1973 that Loholt potentially committed 19 an act of sexual abuse.
- 20 6. If any persons are at fault for not preventing the abuse of plaintiff, it is plaintiff's
21 parents and Dr. Allenbach. Plaintiff told his parents about Loholt's first act of abuse, 22 and they told Dr. Allenbach. None of them did anything to prevent further abuse.
- 23 7. If the conversation between Mr. Pettit and Bishop Borland is admissible, Bishop 24 Borland responded reasonably and consistent with the duty of ordinary care by 25 releasing Loholt from his position as Assistant Scout Master.
- 26

8. Defendant's damages, if any, were caused by having been raised by a volatile father who on one occasion beat Plaintiff with a golf club, and a mother who was an alcoholic or had alcohol-related problems.

IV. ISSUES OF LAW

Plaintiff contends the issues of law are as follows:

1. Did COP have a special relationship with Jack Loholt because he was its youth minister, scout leader and religious Elder?

2. Did LDSSS have a special relationship with Jack Loholt because it counseled him around his sexual deviancy and because it was a mandatory child abuse reporter, was aware that Loholt had molested children and knew or should have known that Loholt was continuing to have contact with children in connection with his church positions?

3. Did COP have a special relationship with Plaintiff?

4. Was COP's knowledge of the potential harm to children by Loholt so certain and so grave, that regardless of the existence of a special relationship, the societal interest in protecting children from known sexual abusers, requires the imposition of a duty on defendants without more?

5. Defendant defendants, and each of them, violate RCW 26.44.030?

6. Did COP violate a common law duty of care by failing to warn or protect R.K. from Loholt?

7. Did COP violate its duty to adequately to train or supervise its hierarchal clergy, youth pastors and scout leaders in the proper procedures regarding the protection of children from sexual abuse and to monitor and ensure compliance with policies regarding the proper handling of reports of child sexual abuse?

8. Did COP violate its duty to properly investigate allegations of abuse by Loholt and did it violate duty when it failed to reach out and protect foreseeable victims of Loholt?

Defendants contend the issues of law are as follows:

1. Has plaintiff presented evidence sufficient for a reasonable juror to conclude that Dr. Allenbach was COP's agent, or should directed verdict be made on that component of plaintiff's claim?

2. Has plaintiff presented evidence sufficient for a reasonable juror to conclude that Loholt was COP's agent, or should directed verdict be made on that component of plaintiff's claim.

3. Whether defendants owed plaintiff any duty.

4. Whether plaintiff's claims are barred by the statute of limitations?

5. Whether the communication from Richard Pettit to Bishop Borland and the reporting statute are admissible.

V. EXPERT WITNESSES

(1) On behalf of Plaintiff:

Dr. Jon Conte. Dr. Conte will testify about plaintiff's emotional and psychological injuries resulting from his being repeatedly sexually abused by Jack Loholt. The substance of Dr. Conte's report is set forth in his report.

13 (a) Trial of this matter is scheduled for October 2nd, 2006. The parties anticipate trial
14 length of 7-10 days.

15 (b) Trial briefs shall be submitted to the Court on or before September 27, 2006.

16 (c) Jury instructions requested by either party shall be submitted to the Court on or 17 before September 27, 2006. Suggested question of either party to be asked of the jury by the 18 Court on Voir Dire shall be submitted to the Court on or before September 27, 2006.

19 (d) This order has been approved by the parties as evidenced by the signatures of their 20 counsel. This order shall control the subsequent course of the action unless modified by 21 subsequent order. This order shall not be amended except by order of the Court pursuant to 22 agreement of the parties or to prevent manifest injustice.

23 (e) This Court has issued the following rulings in this matter to date:

24 (1) Order Granting in Part Plaintiff's Motion to Compel (granting motion and 25 directing Bishop Borland to answer questions regarding his conversation with Richard Pettit;
26

1 denying the motion and holding communications between Bishops Borland and Coleman with
2 Loholt were subject to the clergy-penitent privilege). Dkt. No. 88.

3 (2) Order Denying Motion for Summary Judgment (regarding statute of 4 limitations), Dkt. No. 99.

5 (3) Order Granting in Part Summary Judgment (dismissing plaintiff's claims 6 for fraudulent concealment/equitable estoppel, civil conspiracy and negligent infliction of 7 emotional distress, and denying remainder of motion based upon absence of duty), Dkt. No.
8 101.

9 (4) Order Granting Motion to Amend Complaint [sic] (allowing COP to 10 amend its answer to add Jerry Kelly as an additional person at-fault). Dkt. 145.

11 (5) Order Granting Motion in Limine (excluding evidence of: (a) Loholt's
12 abuse of other persons; (b) damages suffered by other sexual abuse victims; and (c)
13 settlements reached by COP with other victims). Dkt. 152.

14 (6) Order Granting Defendant's Motion to Segregate Damages Resulting 15 From Intentional Tortfeasor (holding that the Court will instruct the jury to segregate the 16 damages caused by the intentional conduct of non-party Jack Loholt from those damages
17 attributable to defendant's negligence, if any). Dkt. No. 153.

18 (7) Order Denying Defendant's Motion in Limine to Exclude Mandatory
19 Reporting Statute (Dkt. No. 175).

20 (8) Order Denying Defendant's Motion in Limine to Exclude Clergy-Penitent
21 Communication (Dkt. No. 174).

22 (9) Order Granting, in part, Denying, in part, Defendants' Motions in Limine
23 (Dkt. No. 184).

24 (10) Order Granting, in part, Denying, in part, Plaintiff's Motions in Limine
25 (Dkt. No. 185).
